Shutoff Interrupts Corry Gas Service

Corry, Sept. 21.—(P)—Housewives in this Erie county community cooked with gas today after being without the fuel more than eight hours.

An emergency prevailed until after 10 p. m. yesterday when the Pennsylvania Gas Company restored service.

The gas company shut off all of its service accidentally. Then, before gas was permitted to flow into the main line again, the company had to notify each of nearly 2600 subscribers.

Officials were fearful that if the gas went on suddenly again explosions might result. They brought in emergency crews from nearby towns to help warn consumers of the danger.

Gas lines at curbs were shut off
in cases where householders could not be reached.

The fire department and police department stood by when the gas was turned on again but there were no calls for assistance.
A gas company official said the firm was repairing a meter on its main line and had shut off the gas in the belief it would continue to flow to consumers through a bypass line. However, the bypass line was not open and within seconds all of Corry was without gas.

The Corry Journal, an afternoon newspaper, was forced to set some of its type by hand and its edition was late. Type metal in the gas fired furnaces on the newspaper's linotypes "froze" as soon as the gas went off. Machinists worked last night to have the machines ready for operation for today's edition.

GOP Candidate Criticizes Huge National Debt In Speech Here

The Democratic national administration has run up the most "fantastic debt" in history, Republican gubernatorial Candidate John S. Fine declared here last night in a campaign speech before a crowd of 600 persons who jammed the main courtroom of the county courthouse.

Appearing on the program with Judge Fine were two other candidates for statewide office, Senator Lloyd H. Wood, candidate for lieutenant governor, and Judge Blair Gunther, candidate for the superior court; and two local candidates, Senator L. E. Chapman of Warren and Rep. Allen D.
Gibson, of Sheffield, both of whom are seeking re-election.

Judge Allison D. Wade, who served as chairman of the meeting and introduced the speakers,
termed the meeting "an old-fashioned political rally," and invited those attending to enter into a frank and open discussion of campaign issues with the candidates.

Extending his remarks on the size of the national debt, Judge Fine declared that all the farms in the United States, "5,859,000 of them valued at 62 billion dollars.

are equal to only one quarter of our national debt."

The candidate said that despite this record spending, the Democratic party has left the country
"wholly unprepared for war."

"We have only drifted toward a socialistic state," he added.
"We can't clean the spendthrifts and bunglers out of Washington in 1952 unless we win in Pennsylvania in 1950. We want a little of Harrisburg in Washington,
but we don't want Washington
and a little fair deal in Harrisburg."

Judge Fine also extended a broad invitation to all Republicans to join him in sweeping the Republican Party to victory in Pennsylvania in November.

"The Republican Party," he said, "is big enough, generous enough and wise enough to take in all Republicans—and to invite back the Democrats who left us
to break bread with us and go forward to victory on November 7."

"No one has the right, and no one should have the arrogance, to say to anyone that there is no place for him in the Republican

Community Chest Sets $50,510 As Goal for the 1950 Campaign

Warren's Community Chest
Campaign has set its goal at $50, 510 and a confident Chairman and Board of Directors believes the total can and will be realized. Other costs have been increased but not the cost of the Community Chest. In fact by carefully cutting corners and saving here and there the directors of the Chest will have around $1,000 more to distribute among the 9 participating agencies
of the Chest than they had a year ago.

The chief saving will be made in one item alone; that of Campaign Expenses. Nat W. Drake, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, will serve as Chest Campaign Director this year and no
outside personnel will be hired.
The Chest Directors felt that with the experience gained in past years that this saving was justified and welcome. Drake has been at work on plans for the campaign for some time, along with A. L. Rasmussen, President and General Chairman of the Community Chest, Chester S. Allen, Industrial Chairman and Neil D.

Paterson, Special Gifts Chairman.

The dates for the Chest Campaign this year will be October 23-30 though many committee chairmen will have their tasks cleaned up well in advance of the opening County drive. Chest Headquarters in Room 512 of the Warren Bank & Trust Building is already the scene of much activity as a busy office force and volunteer workers
by the score are busily engaged in preliminary work to insure the success of the drive for $50,510.

The 1950 Budget for Warren's Community Chest is presented below:

Boy Scouts—$6,400.
Child Health Center—$550.
Children's Aid Society—$1,000.
Girl Scouts—$6,950.
Salvation Army—$4,500.
Warren Relief Association—
$4,500.
Warren Visiting Nurses—$1,950.
Y.M.C.A.—$11,600.
Y.W.C.A.—$6,950.
Allowances for loss through death, removal from town, year round administrative and campaign expenses—$7,160.
Total—$50,510.

New Pumper Truck Is Received By the Warren Fire Department

The new 1000 gallon pumper truck, authorized by borough council some months ago at a cost of approximately $14,000, was delivered to Central Fire Station from the American La France plant at Elmira, N. Y., by a factory engineer late yesterday afternoon.
The new truck will be tested and,
if found satisfactory, accepted by the fire committee later in the week.

Wayne R. Painter, chairman of the fire committee, said that his committee would view demonstrations to be made by Harvey Snyder, company representative who delivered the apparatus.

The truck, which features all latest improvements in simple design for easy functioning, is powered by a twelve cylinder, 240 horsepower motor which has dual ignition and dual carburetion.
The pump, of 1000 gallon capacity, is equipped with both six and four inch suction intakes, and will lift its water supply at least 25 feet. It will deliver 1000 gallons at 150 pounds pressure; 700 gallons at 200 pounds pressure; or 500

gallons at 250 pounds pressure.
Motor speeds, indicated by a tachometer on the control panel,
are from 2385 to 2625 rpm according to the volume and pressure wanted. Snyder pointed out that these are minimum requirements for the pump and motor, and that they will actually do more. All controls are grouped on a panel on the right side of the body, and arranged for one-man operation.

The truck will be equipped with about 1200 feet of 2½ inch and 1½ inch hose, and a 150-gallon booster tank. In addition, it carries a 24-foot extension ladder,
a 16-foot roof ladder, two hand
extinguishers, electric lanterns,

Court Decides When Loaf Is Not a Loaf

Matlock, England, Sept. 21.—
(P)—In Britain a loaf of bread,
sliced, is not a loaf of bread.

The Matlock magistrate's court
so ruled in the case of a bakery charged with selling underweight loaves.

The loaves were sliced and wrapped.

"Sliced bread," said Defense Attorney C. N. Glydewell, "has been a loaf at one time."

"But once sliced it ceases to be a loaf. It is not, therefore, subject to the minimum weight rules of the food ministry."

The court agreed and dismissed
the charge.

Selection of Jury Requires 3 Days

Waynesburg, Sept. 21.—(P)—A jury whose selection required three days began hearing testimony today in the murder trial of Lawrence T. Yenneral.

Eight men and six women are hearing the case. To choose 12 jurors, plus two alternates, the court had to question 116 persons.
Many veniremen declared they had formed an opinion or did not believe in capital punishment.

Yenneral is accused of shooting
J. L. Trucker Armstrong, a township supervisor, last March 31
as Armstrong sat in an automobile in Jefferson. The state contends the men argued over water rights and politics.

tains the name of Jack Armitage,

house for their own fall convention
at the close of Dr. Furbay's ad-

CIO Policy Makers Study Demands For Steel Pay Boost

Pittsburgh, Sept. 21.—(P)—Top policy makers of the powerful CIO United Steelworkers huddled behind closed doors today in a session which President Philip Murray said will "undoubtedly discuss wage demands."

The union's executive board also is completing its preparations for a campaign to win union shops
throughout the steel industry.

A union shop is one in which membership in the union is a condition of continued employment.

Murray said the two-day executive board meeting probably will outline a wage program which will be submitted to the USW's wage policy committee next month
for ratification.

Murray, who also heads the CIO,
has declared repeatedly that steel industry profits are excessive and that higher living costs justify pay boosts for his million USW members.

A group of 28,000 steelworkers
in the Pittsburgh district has signed a resolution asking the executive board to recommend a wage hike.

The resolution cites "the tremendous increase in the cost of living" and "the huge profits of the steel industry."

Under the union's present contract with major steel companies, wage provisions may be reopened
next November 1. If no agreement on the union's demands is reached within 60 days, the union would be free to strike next January 1.

Steelworkers now earn a national average of $1.70 an hour. That compares to about $1.75 for auto workers who were earning $1.85
before recent pay gains.

FIREMEN TO PARADE

Harrisburg, Sept. 21.—(P)—A mammoth parade is slated to march through the streets of downtown Harrisburg today, bringing to a close the 15th annual convention of the State Firemen's Association. The procession was expected to last at least five or six hours and will include some 145 units, about 50 bands and approximately 100 pieces of fire apparatus.

Trio Arrested In Connection With A Re Burglaries

Three Erie men, picked up at Erie by state police from the La-rence Park station and Erie city detectives upon request of the Sheriff's office and local state police, are in Warren county jail today. They will be charged with three burglaries in Youngsville in which Mariner Brothers Garage,
the Youngsville Atlantic Service, and Barton's Youngville Super-Service station were entered.

Deputy Sheriff Sandy Secor and State Police Corporal Donald
Holmes said the men were Samuel W. Chiodo, Jr., Alonzo Fur-sell, and Robert L. Randerker.
Chiodo is a former Warren man.
Officers said that the men have also admitted four other robberies, two in Erie and two in Cleveland.

Entry to Mariner's and the Atlantic station was made on Friday, September 8; and the Barton station was burglarized on Sunday, September 10. At the first two places, merchandise consisting of candy bars and automobile accessories as well as $19.50 in cash was taken.

At Barton's station, six cartons of cigarettes and $90 in silver was taken.

All entries were made by breaking windows and releasing the catches on the inside, except at Barton's station where the window was broken.

Big Battle In Prospect As Reds Rush Up Heavily-Armed Column

KOREA AT A GLANCE

Inchon-Seoul Front: Marines batter into Seoul from two directions, strike for heart of South Korean capital.
Big battle for city looms. Communist "mystery" tank column from Manchuria believed across 38th parallel on way to reinforce Seoul Reds, as other Reds converge on area from southeast.

Pusan Box: Reds surrender in droves north of Taegu, where U. S. and South Koreans close pincers trap on Communist 13th Division. U. S. 25th Division advances in south against stiff resistance. South Koreans drive ahead mile and a half north of Pohang on east coast.

Air War: Allied planes fly record number of sorties in support of troops on Korean front, taking heavy toll of Red troops. B-29s hit Red training camp near Pyongyang, North Korea, and other targets.

New York: U. S. offers United Nations plan to halt aggression anywhere in world.

Tokyo, Sept. 21.—(P)—American Marines battled for ancient Seoul today while a mystery column was reported rolling down on the Korean capital from Soviet-dominated Manchuria.

The nationality of manpower in the heavily-armed Communist column was not known to U. S. intelligence officers.

The Marines' entry into northwest Seoul's narrow streets was met by stiffening resistance.

Field dispatches reported the tank-led leathernecks entered the city at 6 p. m. Wednesday (4 a. m. EST) from their Han river crossing eight miles downstream.

The swift Allied 10th Corps advance from the original second front landing beaches at Inchon, 220 miles away, appeared to have reached the slower house-to-house fighting phase. The Marines made it from the riverside into Seoul in 12 hours.

A big battle seemed in prospect.

Besides the threat of the unidentified column of 40 tanks and 200 other vehicles approaching
Seoul from the North, Korean Reds rushed into the city from several other directions. Many were from the old Allied beachhead perimeter in the southeast.

General Douglas MacArthur appeared confident. After a visit to a marine sector west of Seoul, directly across the Han from the capital, the United Nations Commander went aboard the battleship Missouri off Inchon and then flew back to Tokyo. He had been at the second front since it opened on the Yellow Sea shores last Friday.

Lt. Gen. Lemuel C. Shepherd, commander of all Pacific fleet marine forces, predicted it would be at least a week before Seoul
is safe for an Allied victory parade.

"They could have made it tough for us," said Shepherd. "But we're on the north bank of the river and we're going to slay them."

Shepherd returned to Tokyo with MacArthur in the general's new Constellation staff plane,
"SCAP," on his way back to Honolulu.

AT COLUMBIA THEATRE—When the cameras film a Lana Turner kiss, the temperature rises! Here Miss Turner is shown in a "warm" moment with Ray Milland, her co-star in "A Life of Her Own," Friday through Tuesday at the Columbia Theatre. The dramatic story of a smalltown girl who achieves fame as a New York model marks Lana's return to the screen after an absence of two years. And everybody's happy!

club trick with dummy's king and ruff a club, thus establishing the rest of the suit. Dummy's queen of hearts would then furnish entry for the rest of the clubs.

"I'd like to know what George thinks about this?" George sends his congratulations to East, but he was not so complimentary about South's method of playing the hand. The trouble was that South drew the trumps too quickly.

After winning the opening lead, South should go after the clubs immediately. East might refuse to take the ace at once (still his best play) but South would find it easy to get to the dummy as often as he liked with trumps.

For example, if East refused the ace of clubs, declarer could take the ace of diamonds and lead another club. East would win and lead spades. South ruffing the second round. Declarer would lead a trump to dummy's ten, ruff a club, and then enter dummy with the queen of hearts to run the clubs.

Kane Sportsmen Unanimously Turn Down the Scheduled Antlerless Deer Season

Kane Republican: Kane sportsmen unanimously turned thumbs down on the scheduled antlerless deer season in this section with President Fred Bauman today initiating efforts to secure a County Federation meeting to advance efforts to abrogate the season. The move was no surprise locally as sportsmen were expressing vigorous opposition to such a plan again this year after such a slaughter last season.

The season last year in which several thousand deer were taken out of this section—within a few miles of Kane, virtually wiped out the great barn-yard herds and made heavy reduction of all herds. Locally, the slaughter was result of a tremendous concentration of hunters.

The concentration developed for two reasons. This section was publicized for its great deer herds and when other counties abrogated the season, the action threw still more hunters into this area.

The result will long be remembered—a barrage of high-power rifles that riddled the herds and in addition to the thousands taken out, left many hundreds of dead and crippled in the forest.

It was not hunting—but a meat-grabbing army that shot on sight. Some of the antlerless deer taken out could have been carried in the hunting coats of the hunters—not much bigger than jack rabbits.

Through the past year, lease workers, line walkers, woods workers and many others who saw scores of deer daily in the past have seen few or none at all according to their reports at the meeting. Many of the men regularly traverse the remote areas and find the situation is general in this section.

Opinion on the deer problem here has been divided in the past. The small game hunters wanted the herds cut to a small number—to leave enough feed for the small game. The question remained "when to stop the reducing?" Action of sportsmen gave their opinion definitely.

On the other side of the ledger Allegheny National Forest officials and state game protectors hold there still are too many deer for the amount of food available in the forests. It is generally known that deer do not range far—but a few miles, and may starve in their range while there is plenty of food a few miles away. Sometimes they can reach it—but in heavy snows and a bad winter, sportsmen have been forced to provide feed.

Strange as it may seem, both the sportsmen and the ANF and game protectors are right. The thousands of nimrods who pay for hunting licenses, work to help promote better game conditions, feel that the Kane area has had its reduction in deer and that regular buck season this year will be sufficient. The herds of deer along highways of this section are a traditional thrill for motorists—a part of the local scenic picture.

The big game season is more than a hunting season to Kane. Mt. Jewett, Marienville and other points in this area. It is of industrial proportions with many thousands of dollars spent here by hunters during the seasons. Kane's population has tripled for the season with many hunters sleeping in cars—going from house to house to ask if they can sleep on floors—anywhere. Such a situation is normal in a deer season.

On the other side of the ledger, the ANF and other officials long have preached that the deer will migrate—moving out. At the same time they predicted years ago that the deer would become smaller through the years and the herds deteriorate in general. Their predictions have materialized. Where sportsmen not many years ago bagged huge deer with great racks of antlers, such kills have been rare in recent years and the deer are smaller.

There were a good many local nimrods who remember back 5 years ago when a deer kill here was a rarity and more bear than deer were to be found in the forests. Hunters drove all day—covering many miles without finding as much as a deer track. The imported deer from Michigan took hold and from a small number of transplants, the great herds of recent years developed.

Richard F. Costley, supervisor of the ANF was at the meeting. He told the group of the forest service surveys and held to the opinion there are still too many deer in the forests. He cited numerous herds in remote areas which have been virtually untouched by hunters.

Sportsmen have given their opinion and now it will be up to county action. From all indications it will be a difficult job to get a county-wide action to abrogate the season. Where Kane and vicinity were hard hit, some sections still have heavy farm damage from deer and huge herds can be seen almost daily. One Port Allegany sportsman said there are too many deer in that section.

Gerry Archibald returned Tuesday from a national meeting of the Fox Breeders of the United States, held in the Hotel Schroeder at Milwaukee. During the sessions he was elected a member of the National Fox Fur Marketing Board. It was discovered at the meeting that the Archibald Fox Ranch is probably the oldest of the ranches existing in the United States at the present time. This Warren County fox ranch is also one of the largest in the country.

PLACE FOR "40-PLUS" MEN

Before World War II many men over 40 had a hard time finding work. It was the fashion among a lot of employers to rate such "oldsters" as no longer useful. But the war showed the folly of that attitude, for thousands of men well into their sixties performed ably in vital war-time jobs.

Since then management has taken a more sensible and realistic view of the older worker's economic value. Businessmen recognize, too, that men in the upper age brackets are steadily bulking larger in the population. Pension burdens will be heavy enough without the unnecessary added load of men who are perfectly capable of giving good service for years.

All this is healthy. The premature retirement of men able to work usefully for a long time to come is economically wasteful. More than that, it's often ruinous to the individual "oldster" who feels himself fit to take an active part. So it's a good sign that elderly workers are being given a real place.

Yet, conversely, in some lines oldsters may well be gaining job opportunities that they ought not to have. In a machine civilization, there are, inevitably, tasks which call for speedy physical reactions which only younger men can show.

The recent rail crash that led to death for 33 aboard a troop train provides an example. Testimony since the accident has established that the engineer of the fast Pennsylvania Railroad passenger train which struck the troop train, was to blame. He ignored a red warning signal. When he did decide to stop, he waited too long before applying his emergency brakes.

The engineer involved is 68 years old. Many might wish to insist his age had nothing to do with the accident, that he simply made a mistake anyone could have made. True, maybe. Still, the last time a similar rail wreck occurred—on the Burlington line—the man responsible was also a 68-year-old engineer.

How do men of such age get jobs running the nation's fastest trains? Union seniority rules are the answer. They allow the veteran railroader to take his pick of the best jobs available. Operating a star train is in the nature of a reward for long and faithful service.

If the light of this tragic wreck on the Pennsylvania, rail management and unions might find it wise to modify seniority rules to keep 90-mile-an-hour limited in the hands of younger men with faster reaction times.

The basic worth of the seniority system will not be damaged by making a few carefully spotted exceptions. And some lives may be saved.

LINERS EQUIPPED FOR QUICK SHIFT

All the big passenger vessels now under construction in American shipyards are designed to serve alternately as troop ships. So there can't be any severe complaint at the government's announcement that it will make the largest of these a troop carrier right from the start.

It's a pity, though, that the appearance of this 46,000-ton superliner in European passenger service is now to be delayed indefinitely. For, by just that length of time, we are putting off the answer to the question of whether America can really compete with other countries in this kind of service.

"MIGHTY MO" BACK IN ACT

Life has its funny twists. Remember when the U. S. Missouri was helplessly stranded on a sand bar off Norfolk naval base? Lots of people were saying she should have been stowed away in mothballs long before that.

When the ship finally was re-floated, the Navy announced its intention to convert her to a training vessel. It was accepted as a sort of last-gasp scheme to keep the president's favorite craft in operation.

Now we're told the Big Mo is in Korean waters blasting away at the enemy shore with everything she's got. She's giving lessons all right—to the North Koreans.

EMERGENCY POLIO APPEAL

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is making an emergency appeal to its Chapters in all parts of the country to pledge their uncommitted funds to polio epidemic relief by November 1st, when national March of Dimes funds for this purpose will be exhausted, Basil O'Connor, president, revealed today. To meet an "undeniably grave" financial situation caused by mounting polio incidence adding to the staggering load of last year's patients who will require care, the National Foundation president has asked the cooperation of all Chapters instead of making another public appeal this year, Mr. O'Connor said.

"Who Is Going to Push Who Into What Sea?"

Here And There

The 53rd annual convention of the Allegheny River Improvement Association will be held in the K of C auditorium in Oil City Saturday. James H. Frantz, of this city, is secretary of the organization, and it is expected a large delegation from Warren will attend. Industrialists, businessmen, farmers and delegates from all towns and communities in the Allegheny valley from Pittsburgh to New York harbor are looked for. Hon. Leon H. Gavin, congressman from the 19th district, will be one of the principal speakers. Other speakers will include Yates Catlin, former executive secretary of the association, who is now director of public relations for the American Waterways, Inc., Washington, D. C. Donald T. Wright, also well known in Warren, publisher of the Waterways Journal, of St. Louis, Mo., and a native of Oil City, will be chairman of the session. An Oil City group of industrialists, business and professional men will be hosts to the association delegates this year. It will be remembered two years ago the convention was held in Warren with a picnic at Oakview park.

The mail bag brings us an interesting and timely letter from a wife of a member of Company I, which contains a bit of well-deserved criticism. It says: "The people of Warren and vicinity proclaimed to be patriotic when Co. I left Warren September 10. Were they really? It seems quite a few have forgotten what the National Anthem stands for. It was actually pitiful to see so many men wearing hats, not to have enough sense to remove them when the National Anthem was played. Surely they have respect for that song and for the men that boarded that train. Maybe they were just onlookers, and not friends or relatives of any of those brave men. Aren't those men going into service for our country not only for friends and relatives, but for the onlookers too?"

Sixty years ago today it was announced in the Warren Evening Mirror: "On Monday, Sept. 22, the D. A. V. & P. will run a special train to Titusville on account of the Ringling Circus which appears there on that date. The train will start from Ackley at 8 a. m., reach Warren at 8.25, and Titusville at 10:00 o'clock. Fare from points between Ackley and Irvineton $1.25 for the round trip. Proportionately low rates from points south of Irvineton. The train leaves Titusville on the return trip at 11 p. m., thus enabling all to attend the evening performance."

★ WASHINGTON COLUMN ★
Navy, Marines Fail to Adopt Army's New Medical Setup

BY DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—There's some feeling running between the Defense secretary's office and the Navy and Marine Corps over the use of doctors. Careful studies made by the Army have shown that a division in combat only needs 42 doctors to adequately handle the wounded. The old rule was to have 70 doctors with every division in combat. The difference is the result of newer methods of treatment, faster evacuation to base hospitals, more efficient field hospitals and the use of enlisted men to do more of the routine medical chores. However, the Marine Corps is insisting on keeping 70 doctors with its divisions while the Army has reduced to 42.

And the Navy has been dragging its feet on other recommendations for using doctors more efficiently. It insists on keeping a doctor as the administrative head of a hospital and keeping a doctor on tankers, which might not have a crew of more than 80 men. The inconsistency of that is the fact that the Navy does not keep a doctor on its submarines.

Here's the behind-the-scenes story of the fight between the Departments of Commerce and Interior over emergency control of power. Private power interests, long foes of Interior's public power programs, favored first giving control to a special agency and second to Commerce. The fight was more bitter between the power interests and Interior than between officials of Commerce and Interior.

It was the personal friendship President Truman has for Interior Secretary Chapman which weighed heaviest in the argument, plus the President's general dislike for the power boys. But the precedent was for giving emergency control of power to an independent agency. Former WPB boss Don Nelson in an eloquent letter, sold the idea to the President over the protest of Harold Ickes, who can protest very actively when he sees fit.

In analyzing the effects of the new Social Security law, the Children's Bureau lists the biggest needs yet to be met in the health field. About 1,000,000 children under 10 have congenital syphilis, 175,000 have cerebral palsy, 200,000 have epilepsy, 500,000 have rheumatic fever, 1,000,000 have defective hearing, 4,000,000 have bad eyes and three-quarters of all school kids have dental defects.

THE President is usually pretty forthright in his press conferences. That's why there were a lot of raised eyebrows when his reply to the first query on William Henry Harrison becoming director of the controls agency was that it was the first he had heard of the rumor. Actually all the reporters there knew that the deal to give Harrison that job had been made the day before. White House aides now explain that the President gave that answer because Harrison hadn't had a chance to explain the new job to the board of directors of A. T. & T., the company he was leaving.

In a new book called "Our Jungle Road to Tokyo," by Lt.-Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger, the general tells about winning his first star: "One morning Miss Em, my wife, came home with a telegram in her hand. She was weeping. I tried to find out who had died. Finally she told me I had been promoted. My name had been on the first list of colonels to be advanced to the grade of temporary brigadier general. A day or two later I received a wire from an exuberant West Point classmate who shared my good fortune. This was the message: 'At last they had had sense enough to promote the two best damn officers in the U. S. Army.' The message was signed—George H. Patton."

A photograph of the soul of a dying grasshopper is in the possession of the American Psychological Institute.

3 BIG REASONS

...WHY SO MANY MORE PEOPLE DO THEIR FOOTWEAR SHOPPING AT BROWN'S

1 QUALITY:

Ever since this company was founded, its executive heads have held unwaveringly to an ideal of quality in the merchandise it offers the public, and to a policy of giving every ounce of value possible for the customer's dollar. People recognize and appreciate this policy; they know that they can buy with confidence at Brown's.

2 PRICE:

With prices climbing steadily, Brown's have fought to keep footwear prices down to reasonable levels without sacrificing traditional quality and style. We comb the markets for bigger values; we buy in larger quantities — so that we can pass along greater savings to the thousands of people who look to Brown's for "more for the money".

3 VARIETY:

The third fundamental principle in all Brown's stores is to maintain complete stocks; to offer shoppers more styles, more colors, more designs in the most complete range of sizes and widths. The chances of getting just what you wanted are better at Brown's — because Brown's keep bigger and more complete stocks in stores which are exclusively shoe stores.

And there are other reasons, too!

Brown's success and growth have been aided by a lot of other things. In addition to the "big three" listed above. Shoppers like to be waited upon by our carefully-trained salespeople; they like to come into our clean, light, cheerful stores; they like to consult footwear experts about specific needs; they like the friendly atmosphere and attitude of helpfulness which are part of Brown's service to the public.

That Loosen
Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plates dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTBETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "false odor" (denture breath). FARM ROUNDUP

By JOHN DEITRICK
Harrisburg, Sept. 20.—(P)—Pennsylvania's farm income this year is expected to be the lowest since 1948.

This prediction comes from Miles Horst, state agriculture secretary. Horst based his prediction on farm income figures for the first six months of 1950 in comparison with increases in farm costs.

For the first half of 1950, Pennsylvania farm marketings totaled $343,239,000 a drop of $32,635,000 under the same period last year.

Contributing further gloom to the farm outlook this year are revised production estimates for 1950 corn and tobacco crops.

A federal-state crop survey said dry weather during August had adverse effects on both the tobacco and corn outlook in Pennsylvania.

The revised September 1 corn estimate was set at 60,075,000 bushels—a drop of 2,025,000 under August 1 estimates. The tobacco crop on the first of September was estimated at 58,868,000 pounds or 2,737,000 pounds under the August 1 figure.

A bright spot, however, was an advance of 457,000 bushels in the estimate for the state potato crop. The crop is now estimated at 19,300,000 bushels.

Pennsylvania potato growers lost $5,000,000 last year in lower marketing prices resulting from mechanical injury and bruises to spuds at harvesting time.

This was reported by the Pennsylvania Cooperative Potato Growers, Inc. The agency said most of this damage was caused by diggers being operated at two high a rate of speed, improper adjustment of the digger, and rough handling.

Fifty different lines of rust-resistant tobacco have been developed at the Lancaster tobacco experimental station. These strains were developed by the station in its long-range fight to wipe out tobacco rust, long known as the scourge of tobacco growers.

Several of the new strains are now undergoing tests as cigar types. If they make high quality cigars they will have proved themselves.

Some 150 commercial exhibitors will be on hand for the three-day exposition of the northeastern poultry producers council opening here October 3.

The exposition, expected to draw at least 10,000 poultrymen from 13 northeastern states, will be held in the state farm show building.

The three-day exposition will feature a series of education lectures and program for poultrymen. Specialists in every phase of the industry will discuss ways and means of putting more dollars into poultry producers' pockets by growing more and better eggs and poultry.

A special session will be held for turkey growers on October 3 to hear experts in their part of the industry discuss their problems.

49 Fewer Fatalities On State Highways First Six Months

Harrisburg — There were 49 fewer highway fatalities in Pennsylvania in the first six months of 1950 as compared with the same period of 1949, the Bureau of Highway Safety, State Department of Revenue, reported today.

In the first six months of 1950 there were 662 fatalities, comprising 391 rural and 271 urban, against 711 deaths in the same period of last year. The 1949 total included 422 rural and 289 urban fatalities.

The record for June 1950 was far better than the same month of last year. This year the June fatalities were 78 rural and 32 urban for a total of 110 against 94 rural and 52 urban for a total of 146 for June 1949.

Pedestrian fatalities in the first six months of this year totaled 235 against 321 for the same period of last year. This year's pedestrian deaths included 81 rural and 154 urban against 122 rural and 188 urban last year, an overall reduction of 86.

Pedestrian deaths in June 1950 comprised 11 rural and 18 urban for a total of 29 against 18 rural and 30 urban for a total of 48 in the same month of 1949, a reduction of 19.

The Bureau reported that Pennsylvania's record in highway fatalities is commendable because on a national basis traffic fatalities are rising. However, the Bureau reminded operators and pedestrians that many of the fatalities could have been avoided.

All persons were warned to: "Slow up—Look up—Live Longer."

Officers Elected By Canteen Group

The election of temporary officers of the Warren Youth Canteen youth committee highlighted a meeting of the group held at the Y.M.C.A. last evening, with over 40 persons present.

Chosen were Nula Cheronis, president; Robert Foley, vice-president; Ellen Henderson, secretary; and LeRoy Salerno, treasurer.

Miss Cheronis immediately took charge of the meeting and began working on the selection of chairmen for the various standing committees. Robert Foley and Pat McCarthy were picked as co-chairmen for the program committee, the primary duty of which is to present a constitution for acceptance.

Allen Anderson was elected as publicity chairman and the Leaders Corp. volunteered to take over the work committee until a chairman is selected. Two other standing committee heads are still to be chosen.

Representatives present went through the canteen building to see the work that had been accomplished in the past week. Some of the beaver board had been put on where necessary and a few of the cinder blocks placed.

The program committee met following adjournment to work on the constitution and will hold another meeting Monday at seven o'clock at the "Y". The next regular session for the group was called for Wednesday, September 27, at the "Y".

To Use That School-Brought
Leisure Time, Make a Plan

THIS is the time of year when the housewife is thanking goodness that the children will soon be back in school.

And many's the housewife you'll hear sigh with relief over the fact that she'll soon have a little time for herself. But you rarely hear one say what she is going to do with that time, once it is hers.

Yet, unless a woman makes a plan, the freedom she gets while the children are in school can be wasted. And her months of having time to do "as she pleases" will give her no more satisfaction than she got out of the summer months when she was tied down.

To begin with, the woman who has no idea of what she means to do with her time finds other people using it up. Before she realizes what she is doing she has said "Yes" to any number of demands on her leisure, none of which may give her any feeling of real accomplishment or any real pleasure.

START PLANNING NOW

SO if the opening of school gives you some leisure time, start making plans for how you will spend it. Do this before it gets gobbled up by pointless outside activities, by such time-killing pursuits as needlessly long shopping jaunts and time frittered away in the company of people who don't really interest or stimulate you.

Figure out what you really want to do and accomplish during your months of comparative freedom. Then start right away making plans and allotting your time so that you won't let another year slip by with nothing done that you really wanted to do.

Elaine Swanson Selects Her Parents' Anniversary to Marry Richard Wenzel

Elaine Swanson, Lander, chose September 20, the 34th wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Swanson, for her marriage to Richard Wenzel, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wenzel, Warren RD 2. Falling on the same day of the week, as well as the same date, the double ring ceremony took place at 7:30 p. m. in Lander Methodist church, with the Rev. M. E. Lindstrom, Sharon, officiating and the pastor, Rev. Gustav Erickson, assisting. The service was read by candlelight in a setting of white glads and pom poms, with candelabra holding white tapers.

Mrs. Donald Ludwick was at the piano for traditional bridal airs and as accompanist for Norma Mills, who sang "At Dawning", "Always", "Through the Years", and "Because", following with "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar.

The bride's gown was styled with bodice of Chantilly lace extending over the skirt in peplum effect, and a full net skirt terminating in a train. The net was repeated at the neckline and long sleeves tapered over the hands. A halo of net, decorated with seed pearls and encircled with a tiny upright lace ruffle held her finger tip veil, and her arm bouquet of white glads and mums was completed with a shower of streamers and tiny flowers.

She was given in marriage by her father and attended by her sister, Shirley, as maid of honor, with the bridegroom's sister, Donna Wenzel, as bridesmaid. Their cap-sleeved ensembles were similarly fashioned of silk green and orchid, respectively, and each had matching mitts and headband. Miss Swanson carried an arm bouquet of peach glads and Miss Wenzel had the same flowers in yellow. Georgia Skinner, the little flower girl, wore a long frock of white organza over satin and headband of white pom poms. Her basket of dainty buds was also streamer-trimmed.

Completing the bridal party, LeRoy Weaver, Warren R. D. 2, was best man, and ushers were a cousin of the bridegroom, Eugene Wenzel, North Warren, and the bride's brother, Raymond Swanson.

Mrs. Swanson chose a black and aqua outfit for her daughter's wedding, with corsage of white pom poms, while Mrs. Wenzel wore pink pom poms with navy.

The flower theme of white glads and mums, with white candles, was repeated in decorations at the Lander community house, where the reception for 150 guests was held. Aides were Mrs. Dale Skinner, Marian Mills, Mrs. Arvid Soderberg, Mrs. Eugene Connors and Mrs. George Keller.

Out of town guests were from Erie, Ridgway, Youngsville, Jamestown, Sharon, Warren, Russell, Sugar Grove, Lander and Lakewood.

Leaving for a Canadian honeymoon, the bride selected black accessories, white roses and pom poms with a satin frock of aqua

Opinions On Inventory Controls

BY SAM DAWSON

New York, Sept. 19—(AP)—Mildness of the inventory controls put on 32 commodities this week leaves a large segment of industry unimpressed. They call the curbs vague and hard to enforce. But another group of purchasing agents call the national production authority rules fair and about what was expected. They add, however, that the inventory curbs should be followed by priority rules if any real inroads on gray marketeering and hoarding are to be made.

Still other industry spokesmen doubt there is much inventory hoarding of raw materials for the new controls to reduce. They point to the high rate of production in many industries and the shortages existing in recent weeks and months in many of the commodities the NPA listed.

Suppliers of non-ferrous metals, for example, insist their customers haven't had a decent "minimum working inventory" for weeks. The NPA ruling would limit companies to a "practical minimum working inventory," which it defines as "the smallest quantity of material from which a person can reasonably meet his deliveries or supply his services on the basis of his currently scheduled method and rate of operation."

Some say that's pretty academic for the large number of companies who have been getting much-needed raw materials on an allocation basis for some time, and even more academic to those who, to meet operation schedules, have had to go into the gray market to buy at premium prices.

They regard the NPA ruling as not much more than an appeal to industry not to hoard. They'd like to see a crack-down on the gray marketeers, but say that these speculators are usually too fast and devious to get caught by inventory controls.

Weakness in the metals futures market is traced by some observers to the new inventory controls, but others think the favorable turn in the Korean war is the main cause of the drop in metals prices. Some scrap dealers report the market easing up for the weekend.

They concede, however, that the inventory rule should discourage whatever tendency there was to over-order scarce metals and other raw materials, and make it easier for producers to allocate commodities among users.

Metal fabricators especially would like to see a priorities order, so that when they fill a defense order they could have an official priority to show their suppliers for first chance at getting the metals required.

The textile industry insists

'COPTER AT KIMPO—Here's the first U. S. aircraft to land on Kimpo airfield, after its capture by the Marines. It carried Lt.-Gen. Lemuel C. there has been little chance to withhold shipments to any mill on has been allocated to process for some time now. Heavy orders from wholesale and retail ers, and a run of buying by consumers have kept finished goods moving fast and stocks low.

Nylon hosiery mills say they would consider "practical minimum inventories" to be a three months' supply of yarn. It takes from four to five weeks to throw the yarn, and allocations by du sors are tightening gradually and shipments are said to be running behind. Not many, probably, have a three-months supply.

The National Association of Hosiery Manufacturers warns members about buying in the outside market to build up inventories, noting that Gu Pont could

That gets back to the contention of a large segment in industry, which thinks that industry itself can do the best job of inventory controls by voluntary allocations in the trade and priorities for war production.

Today's Business Mirror

BY SAM DAWSON
New York, Sept. 20. (AP)—Hopes for an early ending of the Korean war have sent a peace scare through the commodity markets. The prices of some war-related commodities have tumbled. And this has set many business-

nessmen to wondering what would happen to the war boom if—
1. Fighting ends in Korea by the end of the year.
2. Russia doesn't start something somewhere else.
Those are "ifs" which no one can answer, only guess about. But if an uneasy peace settles down on the world again, the effect on American consumer psychology, production goals, and commodity prices might change the business picture decidedly, some observers argue.
Others think the force of the inflationary move is too strong to be more than slowed down a bit. They point to the present determination to go on spending heavily for rearmament beyond any need a war confined to Korea would indicate. This, they argue, will keep production high, everyone at work, personal income swollen, and many consumer goods in tight supply.

These observers also contend that prices on finished goods can't roll back very far, because the war has started wage scales rising again. And the rush to buy scarce raw materials at premium prices has added to the costs of many factories and mills.
To prove this they point to a long list of price increases this week and predictions or price hikes on the way. Pre-Korean war price levels on cars, many predict, will be a thing of the past throughout the entire industry by next year. Hikes on some models already have been announced by Packard and Kaiser-Frazer.

A new world record high price for scoured wool is reported from Australia. Tailors and carpet makers talk of higher prices on suits and rugs to come. And in the garment district they are talking today of a boost soon in the price of sleeping garments, due to rising yarn prices and labor costs.
Higher prices of steel are predicted today by Iron Age, a trade weekly, based on expectations the steelworkers will demand a large pay boost.
Rising tanker rates lead some in the oil business to predict higher prices for light fuel oil for home heating, and heavy oil for industrial use.

But against this list of coming price hikes on finished goods, based on rising costs of raw materials and of labor already on the books, there is the marked uneasiness in the commodity futures markets, braced to the peace scare.

Those who see a chance of deflation around the corner argue this way:

1. A sudden end of the Korean war would lead at once to a slump in civilian buying. Many consumers and manufacturers, too, would live for a while on the goods and raw materials they bought up so avidly this summer.
2. With the pressure to buy dropping, world commodity markets would get back to sanity, and many of the post-Korean war price gains would be ailed. At the same time there would be greater consumer resistance to the higher prices now in the cards because of the recent rise in costs.
3. Another thing that might cut a consumer buying: higher taxes might take a bigger slice of the pay check, and another considerable part of the income will be going for payment on the gadgets bought on time at such a record rate. That would leave less money for spot purchases.
4. At the same time, the nation's productive capacity is high and rising. The flood of goods the nation could produce would be the greatest curb of all on inflation.

But against these prospects those who believe the boom will continue point to the defense program—the war production and the stockpiling and the financing—which will keep some materials short and the money supply high. That, they say, means inflation.

County Bookmobile Service Exhibit To Be At High School

The friends of the Warren County Library are featuring an exhibit on County Bookmobile Service at the Teachers' and Directors Institute on Friday. The exhibit in the Warren High School building will include an informative and interesting display and a motion picture, Books and People. Representatives of the friends of the Warren County Library will be present during the day to answer questions.

Warren county educators are showing a steadily increasing interest in the possibilities of a county-wide library service. The survey made by the governor's committee for the Mid-Century White House Conference on Child Welfare reveals the inadequacies in library facilities and service in this county. Mrs. Gerry Archibald, chairman of the committee on education in this survey in Warren county, expressed gratification that work had already been started to formulate some plan through county-wide cooperation to meet these crucial needs.

School Boards in Pleasant, Sheffield and Eldred Townships are the most recent to pass resolutions endorsing the county library bookmobile plan. The Lander PTA has also recently voted in favor of this proposal. At the Warren County Council PTA meeting this week, the importance of communications to the county commissioners was stressed. The county commissioners are at present collecting information from other counties in Pennsylvania which have established county bookmobile library service.

Record Production Of Eggs Indicated For Twelve Months

Harrisburg — By the end of August Pennsylvania farm flocks in eight months of 1950 had produced 2,325,000,000 eggs and were well on the way to setting a new state 12-month record, the State Department of Agriculture reported today.

According to Federal-State surveys the eight-month output was 193,000,000 eggs ahead of the same period in 1949 when a new annual record of 3,097,000,000 was established.

August production of 241,000,000 eggs on Pennsylvania farms was a new record for the month. While the total was three million below the July output it was $1 million above the previous August record made in 1948, the survey disclosed.

The number of layers on Pennsylvania farms, averaging 16,131,000 during August, was record high for the 12th consecutive month. Numbers were 14 per cent above the August average last year. Addition of pullets to laying flocks came earlier this year than usual, contributing to the increase of birds in laying flocks by four per cent over July. Rate of lay at 194.94 per layer easily exceeded previous rates for August and, combined with record numbers of layers, boosted total production for the month.

The August 15 price series show increased costs of production of poultry and eggs for Pennsylvania farmers. Compared with a year earlier, the relation between what farmers pay for feed and receive for chickens and eggs was definitely less favorable to farmers this year.

Feed prices this August compared with a year previous were up 20 cents a hundred pounds for laying mash and up 25 cents for scratch grain. Farmers were receiving an average of 11.3 cents a dozen less for eggs this August than in the same month last year.

Shipyard Workers "Sitdown" On Job

Camden, N. J., Sept. 22.—(P)—Nearly 6,000 workers began a sit-down demonstration today at the New York Shipbuilding Corp. yards here in protest against recent furloughs, union leaders reported.

The yard, which during World War Two built many cruisers and nine aircraft carriers for the U. S. Navy, now has on its building ways three passenger ships which the federal government last week ordered converted to troopships.

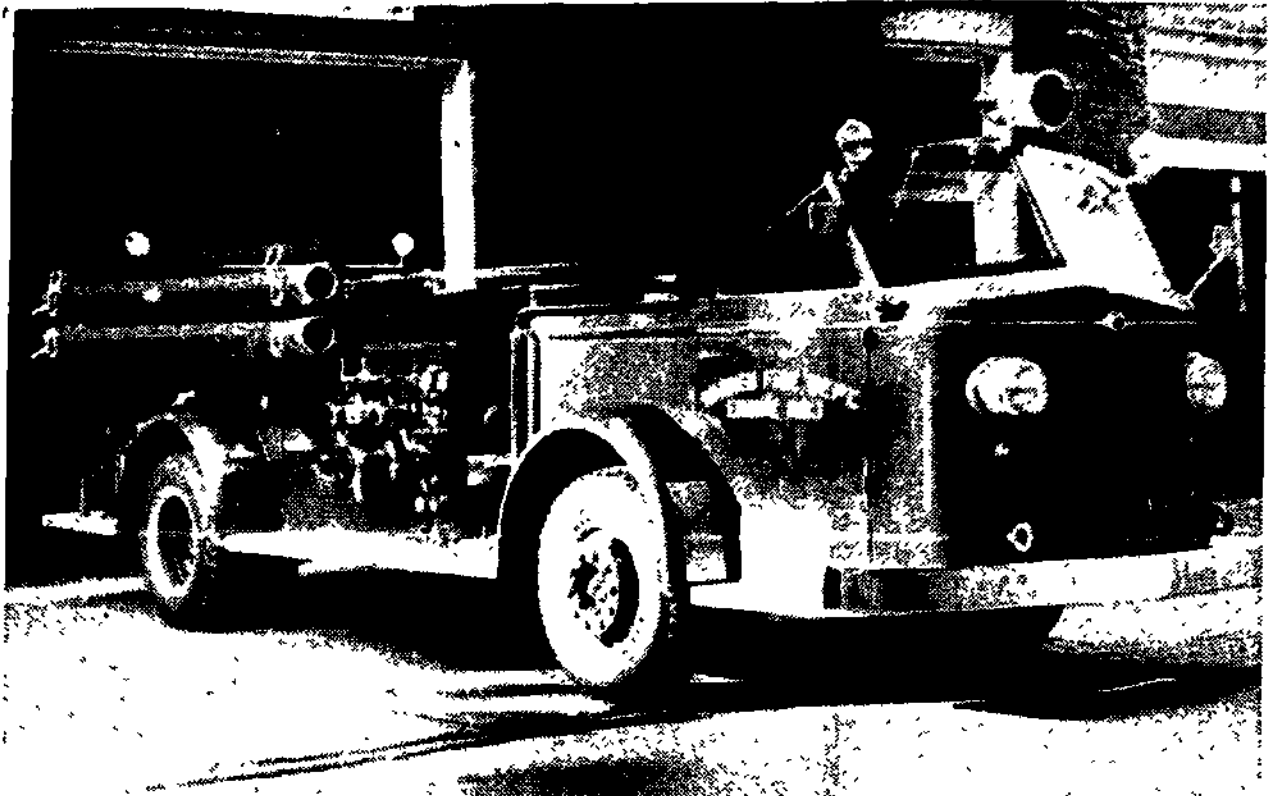

Plans for the sitdown were disclosed last night by leaders of Local 1, Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers (AFL). Shortly before the 6 a. m. (EST) scheduled work start today, Union Secretary Thomas Saul told workers assembled around a sound truck outside the gates.

"Go in and punch your time clocks, but do not work. Don't leave the plant. If you get a pink slip (dismissal notice) forget it. This is not a strike. This is a work stoppage and protest."

The men walked into the yard, and a short time later the start-work whistles were blown. Union officials said the sitdown was under way.

Company officials could not be reached for comment. President Thomas H. Bossert is en route to Washington to talk with government officials.

Saul said the sitdown is a protest demonstration against "un-called for layoffs." He said 1,000 men were furloughed at the plant last week, and 2,000 more would be made idle today or later this week.

ADDED PROTECTION—Latest addition to Warren borough's fire fighting apparatus is this new 1,000-gallon pumper truck delivered to Central station last evening by representatives of the American LaFrance Corporation, Elmira, N. Y. (Times-Mirror Photo)

Quick Action Seen On Tax Hike Bill

Washington, Sept. 21.—(P)—Congress now expects to put the $4,700,000,000 tax-boosting bill on President Truman's desk by tomorrow night, in time to increase payroll tax reductions 10 days from now.

A senate-house conference committee, suddenly breaking a deadlock, reached complete agreement on a compromise measure late yesterday. Mr. Truman quickly telephoned Rep. Doughton (D-N.C.) and said he is pleased with the bill.

The house and then the senate are expected to approve the bill, probably tomorrow.

The agreement cleared the way for congress to adjourn this week-end until after the November elections, when it will come back to consider a "second installment" war tax measure.

The present bill contains a pledge that this "second installment" bill will include an excess profits tax on corporations and that its effective date will be either July 1 or Oct. 1 of this year.

The two tax measures together, while boosting 1950 collections materially, may increase taxes in 1951 by $12,000,000,000 to the highest level on record—even greater than the top collections in World War II.

and the usual assortment of pikes, poles and axes.

Wheelbase of the truck is 150 inches with an overall length of 24 feet. Because of the front axle arrangement, the truck will turn in a 150 foot circle.

Snyder pointed out that the motor is connected to a positive gear drive with straight cut gears. This type, while somewhat noisier than helical cut gears, eliminates end thrust and is much more dependable under heavy loads.

The new equipment will replace the old Number One pumper, purchased in 1922, which will be stored at the West Side Station for reserve.

Snyder expects to be in Warren for several days helping local firemen become familiar with the new equipment and to conduct exhaustive tests preliminary to acceptance.

a crossroads collection of buildings on the western outskirts of the post.

Drive-in restaurants are the rage in this country. A few drive-in theatres also are located near the camp.

Taverns appear to be far fewer than in Pennsylvania, except in the cities. Liquor can be purchased by the bottle even in grocery stores.

The big center of activity is Indianapolis, which is the Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Harrisburg combined—of the Hoosier state.

Franklin is a quiet factory town—it's got a plant making automobile parts about the size of Meadville, Pa. During World War II when thousands of soldiers lived at Atterbury it was the most popular of the nearby towns for the G.I.s.

A not-too-well-enforced speed limit of 30 miles an hour is the law in the Hoosier state. Most of the roads are in fine condition, rivalling the model roadways of the Keystone state.

There is one other aspect of life in Indiana which intrigues the soldiers from Pennsylvania. Indiana offers a $100 reward to any citizen who reports the existence of a slot machine.

There are very few slot machines.

Trio Arrested in Connection With Area Burglaries

dow could not be opened and Chiodo allegedly got in through the pane of glass knocked out, cutting himself as he did so. Officers said he also cut his hands at the Atlantic station in knocking out the window.

The cuts provided local officers with their first lead when Chiodo was noticed at a local race track on Sunday with cuts on his hands. All three men were attached to the carnival which was showing at the Youngsville Fair.

Chiodo was picked up at the induction center at Erie on Tuesday where he reported for a physical examination. Pursell was arrested later in the day at his home. Randecker was apprehended yesterday.

They will be arraigned before Justice of the Peace Tracy M. Greenlund after conference with District Attorney M. A. Kornreich.

Truman Hedges On Signing of Measure

Washington, Sept. 21.—(P)—President Truman sidestepped today the question of whether he will sign or veto the subversive control bill passed overwhelmingly by congress.

He did indicate early action, saying there will be no suspense about what he does with the bill.

Mr. Truman told a news conference the bill hasn't reached his desk, but as soon as it does, he will let reporters know his views on it.

While he didn't indicate whether he would sign or veto it, he previously has shown displeasure with many of its provisions and had said he would not sign an earlier form.

THE MARKETS

New York, Sept. 21.—(P)—The stock market coasted along a narrow price route today.

For a short while immediately after the opening the market showed a tendency to drift lower. Enough buying interest shaped up, however, to keep prices on firm ground.

Most changes were limited to 50 cents a share or less. Gains and losses were thoroughly mixed.

Yesterday's market was unsettled by news of a giant financing program proposed by the board of American Telephone. A T & T stock dropped sharply and the rest of the market veered downward.

Adverse Weather Hits Truck Crops In Pennsylvania

Harrisburg—Temperatures during the latter part of August in Pennsylvania commercial vegetable growing areas averaged slightly above normal and delayed growth of truck crops, the State Department of Agriculture, announced following Federal-State surveys for that period.

During all of late August some eastern sections were dry, though rains were heavy in areas other than those growing vegetables for market. Late summer and fall truck crops were in fair to good condition. Many growers irrigated but maturity of vegetables was slowed by the cool nights. Daytime temperatures were often high and, where moisture was deficient, crops suffered. Several good rains in the important Bucks-Philadelphia area brought vegetables up to near normal condition. Marketings have been held down by slow demand.

Supplies of late snap beans were ample for the market. Demand for beets and carrots was slow. Marketings of Danish cabbage were expected to increase rapidly during September. Celery from the CAMPAIGN VISIT: Judge John S. Fine (center) Republican candidate for governor, shakes hands with Judge Allison D. Wade at a campaign rally in the county courthouse last night. Party. We have a place for everybody, everywhere."

Judge Fine came here by car late yesterday afternoon and broadcast another campaign speech over a 31-station network emanating from the WNAE studio.

He was later joined by Senator Wood, who drove here from Williamsport, and by Judge Gunther, who flew from Pittsburgh to Jamestown, and was then escorted here by private car.

Senator Wood praised the road construction program of the State Highways Department, pointing out that 4882 miles of new road has been built during the present administration.

He said the Republican party has been in power for 50 years in Pennsylvania with exception of the Earle administration "which is important only as a reminder that it shouldn't happen again."

"But as bad as the Earle administration was," he continued, "it would shine as a beacon on a barren shore if Pennsylvania had the misfortune to have Richardson Dilworth (the Democratic candidate) for its governor next January."

Wood urged all party workers to work hard for victory in November. "There's no more important person in the Republican Party," Senator Wood added, "than the precinct worker who goes out and talks to his neighbors and friends about the candidates."

Judge Gunther told of the efforts that are being made in the city of Pittsburgh to run out the Communists. He said that before coming to Warren, he had conferred with newstand operators, and that they had agreed not to handle Communist newspapers on their stands.

He then called on the Postmaster General in Washington, "if he has any true American blood," to bar the Communist newspapers from the mails.

"The Communies," he said, "use the post office department, its personnel and all its equipment, paid for by your tax money, to disseminate Communist literature advocating overthrow of our government by force. How dumb can we get?"

He declared that a Communist is devoted "to only one principle and knows only one master, Uncle Joe."

Senator Chapman and Rep. Gibson also spoke briefly, citing the work of the Duff administration in expanding and modernizing the state's mental hospital program, the big highway rebuilding program, and the conservation, reforestation and clean stream campaigns.

Rep. Gibson pointed out that five million seedlings were planted during the past year for reforestation and that next year 50 million seedlings would be planted. He said this conservation work will not only help renew a natural resource but will pay off big dividends in soil conservation, flood control, increased land values and additional public recreational areas.

Following the noon luncheon in the high school cafeteria, the group will reassemble at 1:30 p. m. under the chairmanship of W. J. Summerville, assistant superintendent in Warren county. One of the features of this session will be a questionnaire: Should this institute try experimentally the workshop phase in its institute program?

At 2:45, there will be a second address, "The Educational Needs of Our Times", given by Dr. Ruth Streitz, professor of education at Ohio State University and nationally known authority on child development and the adjustment of the school to child needs. She was one of the speakers this summer for the group conference of secondary school principals held at University of Pittsburgh and those who heard her on that occasion are anticipating her institute appearance.

Dr. Streitz, along with Dr. Furbay, is also speaking at McKean county institute, the various groups combining their efforts and finances in securing topnotch educators.

At 3:40, adjournment will be taken for individual meetings of the FSEA branches, Warren County in the high school auditorium; Forest county in Room 114.

CAN YOU SPELL IT?

Youngstown, O., Sept. 21.—(P)—Some people can talk their way out of jail, but one fellow spelled his way out yesterday. George Shirley, 61, of Punxsutawney, Pa., came before Judge Frank P. Anzelotti on a drunk charge. He was given a chance to spell his town's name correctly or serve out a fine of $5 and costs. Shirley shook his head, cleared his throat, correctly spelled the groundhog city's name, then thanked the judge for his freedom.

EDITOR DIES

Pittsburgh, Sept. 21.—(P)—A heart attack proved fatal yesterday to Stanley M. Wray, 56, editor of the Leechburg Advance, a weekly newspaper published in Warren county. Wray died at Mercy Hospital.

Duff States Fewer "Yes Men" Needed

Towanda, Sept. 21.—(P)—Gov. James H. Duff says what Washington needs most right now is more "no men" and fewer "yes men" for the Truman administration.

"It is impossible to exaggerate the seriousness of the present crisis," Duff told a Bradford county Republican rally last night, "and the necessity for doing something immediately. Yet the Democratic regime, although spending untold billions of dollars, has put us where we are financially vulnerable within and militarily vulnerable without."

Speaking of what he called efforts to copy socialistic English experiments, Duff—GOP candidate for U. S. senator—asked:

"How come, if they are so good, we have to send millions of dollars to keep England from going on the reef?"

State Senator Lloyd H. Wood, campaigning for Lieutenant Governor, said the Duff administration in Pennsylvania will end not only with a balanced budget but with money in the bank.

W P L REPORTING

At the present time, the library staff is concentrating on processing books for the teen-age trade and the younger customers. With the opening of school and the approach of Book Week, this emphasis is as seasonal as the falling of the leaves.

Some of these books make interesting adult reading because of the background information. Among these is A Lamp is Heavy, by Sheila Russell. This is a vocational story, describing with exciting realism the life of a student nurse in her training course.

Another interesting young people's book is Quest in the Desert, by Roy Chapman Andrews. Mr. Andrews is a noted archeologist who has written several adult books. His unusual experiences give color and life to this story of a search in the Gobi Desert for the burial place of Genghis Khan.

Other books received recently include:

The Little Princesses, by Marion Crawford—"Crawfie" was governess for about 16 years to Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret Rose and she tells the fascinating details of life in the royal household without sacrificing its privacy. Her writing has great warmth and charm and she passes the crucial test easily—that of relating the Mrs. Simpson affair without malice.

Courtroom, by Quentin Reynolds—in telling the story of the New York criminal lawyer, Samuel Leibowitz, Mr. Reynolds has the opportunity to take the reader inside some of the most widely discussed criminal cases of our time. Much of the book is devoted to the Scottsboro case, unraveling all the threads connected with it—the prejudices, injustices and brutality combined with the unpleasant characters of the defendants, and the whole business confused by the Communist Party making capital of the case.

Navajos, Gods and Tom Toms, by S. H. Babington—An inside story of a different kind, Dr. Babington's book relates his experiences as medical officer with a scientific expedition into Navajo country. Since the Indians told medical men in high regard, Dr. Babington attended some ceremonies seldom witnessed by white men.

Pennsylvania Botanist Writes a New Book On State Trees Just Published

Harrisburg—William R. Grimm, who spent 20 years roaming his beloved Pennsylvania woodlands, sketch-pad in hand, has written a book, "Trees in Pennsylvania," published this week by Stackpole and Heck, Inc., Harrisburg and New York.

Grimm's painstakingly detailed sketches, which so impressed naturalist friends that they prevailed upon him to incorporate them in a much-needed popular manual for tree lovers, emphasize those characteristics which have proved most practical for field study—the mature leaves, the twigs, buds and bark. It makes possible easy identification of the state's trees, regardless of season.

"Trees of Pennsylvania" is no mere collection of sketches, however. It is in every sense a tree manual, authoritative and complete, despite its non-technical language. Nor is its usefulness limited to Pennsylvania, for with a few exceptions it also covers the field of the northeastern United States.

Grimm, who is 45, was born in the then sparsely settled South Hills section of Pittsburgh, and quickly developed a love for the outdoors. For a number of years he was actively engaged in Boy Scout work in Allegheny County and served as Scoutmaster and as nature counselor in Scout camps. He majored in botany at the University of Pittsburgh, graduating with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1935.

From 1937 to 1939 he was engaged in nature education work with the Pittsburgh Bureau of Parks, and since 1939 has been affiliated with the Pennsylvania Game Commission, principally in wildlife.

His original sketches, and the descriptive text accompanying them, cover 137 different kinds of trees in 20 different species. The extent to which individual trees are utilized by wildlife has been discussed to a much greater extent than in most previous tree manuals.

Although the book is scientifically accurate in every detail, most

Conewango School Enrollment Climbs To a Record Peak

Enrollment at the North Warren and Starbuck schools climbed to a new peak for the 1950-51 term, it was reported last night at a meeting of the Conewango Township School Board. A total of 211 pupils are attending classes at North Warren, while 74 are enrolled at Starbuck.

Board members accepted the resignation of Miss Coralyn Anderson as school nurse, and authorized the hiring of Mrs. Margaret Harrison, of 310 East street, Warren, in her place on a two-days per week basis.

The commission of the tax collector was fixed at three percent for taxes collected during the discount period and five percent for taxes collected thereafter.

The board also authorized the purchase of a school magazine for each school.

All board members attended the meeting, along with Solicitor Alexander Flick and the two school principals. Mrs. Helena Iseman and Mrs. Grace Firth. Meetings of the August board meeting and two special sessions were read and approved, and financial statement also was read and incorporated in the minutes.

NOW here's a fish dish almost anyone will like. Use steaks about 1/2-inch thick of halibut, cod or haddock and spread the special sauce over the fish before you bake it.

Baked Halibut With Fluffy Pickle Sauce
(Makes 4-6 servings)
Two pounds halibut, cod or haddock steaks (1/2-inch thick), 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup sweet pickle relish, 1/2 cup mayonnaise, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 2 drops tabasco sauce, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 egg whites.

Cut fish into serving pieces, if desired; sprinkle with 1/2 teaspoon salt. Place in greased shallow baking dish. In a bowl combine relish, mayonnaise, onion, parsley and seasonings; stir thoroughly. Beat egg whites until stiff; fold into pickle mixture. Spread sauce over top of fish. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) 15 minutes. Serve immediately.

Salmon Stuffed Peppers
(4 servings)
Four medium peppers, 1 small onion, chopped; 1/2 cup finely chopped celery leaves, 2 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 1 1/2 tablespoons flour, 1/4 cup tomato juice, 1 1/4 cups canned salmon (about), 1 cup cooked rice, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon lemon juice, dash Worcestershire sauce, 1/2 cup buttered bread crumbs.

Cut large peppers in half lengthwise or cut a slice from stem ends. Remove seeds. Boil in salted water until almost tender and drain. Saute onion and celery leaves in fat until tender. Blend in flour, add tomato juice and cook until thickened. Add salmon and rice. Season to taste. Pile salmon mixture in peppers and sprinkle with buttered crumbs. Arrange stuffed peppers in a shallow baking dish, add water barely to cover the bottom of the dish and bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 20 minutes, or until crumbs are brown.

Dragons To Face the Rockets At Titusville Tomorrow Night

Coach J. B. Leidig has been putting his boys through drills and scrimmages all week in preparation for the Dragons game with the Titusville Rockets at Carter Field under the lights tomorrow night. Game time is 8:15 o'clock.

Under Coach Red Lytle, the Rockets came out of their 22 to 0 victory over Millersburg without injuries and will be after the Blue and White scalp with everything they have. The locals, however, are not so well off, with their two starting ends on the injured list.

The Titusville squad also sports a 20 to 13 win over Oil City, and can be classified as top ranking for so early in the season. A split record is recorded so far for Warren, with a 24 to 7 win over Franklin last Saturday and a 14 to 7 defeat by Corry in the opener.

The records of Warren High and its opponents.

Neighboring Youngsville will play host to Bradford St. Bernard's Ramblers at Wilder Field Saturday afternoon for their first home contest this season.

The Eagles, under Coach Frank Kamus, have dropped their first two games away to North East, by a 32 to 12 score, and to Corry, 32 to 7. The Bernies also stooped to the Grape Pickers, 25 to 0. Last year the Eagles lost to St. Bernard's by a 62 to 7 score.

Looking to the East, the Sheffield Wolverines travel to St. Marys for a night game Friday. Last weekend the Wolverines suffered a 32 to 0 loss at the hands of Ridgway, while the St. Marys team had a 13 to 6 triumph over the Kane Wolves.

Oil City, Warren's opponent on September 29, is slated to invade Greenville this Friday with a record of two defeats. The Oilers bowed to Titusville, 20-13, and to Hickory, 14-0. Greenville trimmed Mercer 27 to 0 in its opener, but was upset 13 to 12 by Hickory last week.

Warren's opponent last week, the Franklin Nursery, will hit the road to Meadville over the weekend. The Nurserymen were tounded 24 to 7 by the locals, but edged Hickory 6 to 0 two weeks ago. The Bulldogs have done nothing so far this season, losing 34 to 9 to DuBois and 38 to 0 to Farrell.

The Bradford Owls will be facing their second foe of the season Friday night, when they play host to Erie East. In their curtain raiser last week, the Owls were upset by DuBois, 7 to 6.

O'Neill Set as Bosox Pilot Whether They Win or Not

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Joe Cronin didn't have to look very far for a manager when Joe McCarthy shuffled off to Buffalo.

There was Stephen Francis O'Neill sitting in the corner of the Red Sox dugout.

Steve O'Neill gave the Boston Americans a personality, and it is a pleasure to report that their pennant drive has won him a steady job. At the outset it was suspected that O'Neill was nothing more than a filler-inner, but General Manager Cronin tells us that Steve finally has landed where he belongs—at home with the Boston Irish. O'Neill has developed as many good ballplayers as any man in the business.

It was perhaps fortunate for Bob Feller that O'Neill, the old catcher, was the Cleveland manager when the Iowa farm boy broke in so dramatically.

Stout Steve, then getting along in years, personally caught young Feller the first time he pitched in organized baseball—in an exhibition game against the Cardinals.

O'Neill got a bad break when Feller hurt his arm in 1937. The good-natured Mick got little out of the fireball king after rubbing the rough spots off him, stepped down to Buffalo, where he turned out Lou Boudreau.

O'Neill convinced Walter O. Briggs that he was Detroit's man when he won the Texas League flag while schooling several Tigers-to-be. He won a pennant and was three times second in six years in Detroit.

O'Neill is positively refreshing to the Boston baseball writers after McCarthy, who talked down to them like a school teacher.

For a manager who won nine major league pennants and seven World Series and lost a flag in a play-off and still another on the last day of the campaign, McCarthy is being severely criticized now that the Bosox again are making a run for it.

The biggest difference in O'Neill and McCarthy is that O'Neill is not patient with failure, says one close to the Back Bay party.

"Regardless of what he did, the player was always right with McCarthy,"

To McCarthy, a player hitting a home run in a clutch was accomplishing nothing more than what he was being well paid to do. The boss didn't get excited and neither did the Red Sox.

O'Neill is getting a lot of mileage out of a smile and pats on the back.

Remaining Schedule Favors Tigers in Tight American Race

By The Associated Press

The final chapter of the American League pennant race opens today, and like a good "who-dunn-it," the solution is anybody's guess.

Of the three contenders, the second place Detroit Tigers appear to be in the best position to take charge.

The Tigers play single games today and tomorrow while the league-leading New York Yankees and the third-place Boston Red Sox are idle. Victories in both of these games will put the Tigers in first place.

In addition, the Tigers have another advantage as four of the Red Sox and Yankees' 10 remaining games are against each other. They start to knock each other off in the Yankee stadium Saturday while the Tigers are in Cleveland.

The Tigers entertain the Philadelphia Athletics today with Freddie Hutchinson pitching against little Bobby Shantz. A victory will shove the Bengals into a first place tie with New York.

The Tigers then move to Cleveland where they take on the Indians in the opener of a three game series tomorrow night.

Detroit kept close on the heels of the Yanks yesterday by nosing out the Philadelphia Athletics, 6-5. The New Yorkers turned back the Chicago White Sox, 8-1. The Red Sox, however, suffered a severe jolt as they dropped a doubleheader to the Cleveland Indians, 6-3 and 7-1.

The Tigers had a rough time before the A's succumbed. They trailed by 5-4 until the eighth, when they won the game with a two run splurge against Bob Hooper. Charley Keller started things with a one-out single. He moved to second on a wild pitch and scored the tying run when Ferris Fain threw Hoot Evers' grounder wild past third. Evers reached second on the miscue and scored the winning run on Don Kolloway's third single.

Olean Wins Pony League Playoffs

Hornell, Sept. 21—(P)—The Olean Oilers, who finished in the cellar last year, won the Pony League governor's cup last night, defeating the Hornell Dodgers 4 to 3 in the seventh game of their best-of-seven series.

The Oilers, second during the regular season, continued to show a light regard in the playoffs for the right-handed pitching that gave Hornell the pennant. Olean knocked out Ed Moore and Satchel Franklin, the latter being charged with the loss.

John Gates, Olean's hard-working relief pitcher, came in with the bases loaded and one out in the sixth and held the score at that point to two-all. Gates got the first man he faced to hit into an inning-ending double play and went on to be the winning pitcher.

Carl Anstaeit, Olean catcher, drove in what turned out to be the winning run with an eighth inning single.

Oats Seed Crop In Pennsylvania Hits Record Acreage

Harrisburg—In addition to record acreages of Pennsylvania winter wheat and barley being made eligible for State seed certification, the State Department of Agriculture announces that the oats acreage this year sets an all-time record for certification.

This achievement means that Pennsylvania farmers will have record amounts of approved top quality seed for their small grain plantings for 1951 harvest, according to K. W. Lauer, in charge of seed certification in the Bureau of Plant Industry.

During 1950 there were 3,470 acres of oats inspected for seed on Pennsylvania farms, compared with 3,170 inspected by bureau agents in 1949. There were 2,764 acres that passed all field inspections, a new record. This total compared with 2,399 acres in 1949 and the former record of 2,549 acres set in 1948. Growing conditions were more favorable this year than last, Lauer declared.

SAVING GRACE — Goalkeeper Jimmy Jones of Aston Villa caps to beat the rushing Jack Jezzard of Fulham to the ball in London match. In English football, or soccer, only the goalie is permitted to lay hands on the ball.

In addition to the oats inspected this year there were 149 acres of spring barley inspected for seed certification. A total of 92 acres passed rigid field inspections. The oats and spring barley seed from the approved acreages may now be sold as State certified seed provided the grower's product passes a purity test of not less than 99 per cent and shows a germination of not less than 85 per cent.

The oats variety known as Clinton 59 leads all others in approved acreage, followed in order by Clinton, Clinton 11, Ajax, Zephyr and Mohawk. Lists of growers of certified seed may be obtained by mail on request to the Bureau of Plant Industry, State Department of Agriculture, Harrisburg.

Pennsylvania hunters are limited to a kill of one deer for the 1950 hunting season, regardless of whether antlered or antlerless. The antlerless deer season covers the two days of Nov. 27 and 28. Male deer with two or more points may be killed Nov. 29-Dec. 9.

National Pattern To be Followed By State Civil Defense

Harrisburg, Sept. 20.—(AP)—President Truman's national pattern for civil defense will be followed closely in Pennsylvania, says Alton C. Miller, new state civil defense head.

The national plan was outlined in a 162-page pamphlet prepared by the National Resources Security Board.

Miller said yesterday that in order to reach the public without delay, copies of the pamphlet already are being mailed out by the federal government.

He said the copies are going to executive defense heads in towns and cities of Pennsylvania. Interested persons, he said, may obtain copies from these local leaders.

County defense coordinators are being mailed copies of the defense plan from Harrisburg, Miller said.

Cooperating with the national plan, the state organization now is preparing its own detailed civil defense plan for Pennsylvania.

Miller said the first task is to complete the organization of defense leaders in the local levels. Following that, civilian defense workers will be recruited to man the defense setup.

Miller also announced that Col. Lewis F. Acker, who served previously as executive director for the committee for civil defense, has been transferred to his office and will function as executive.

There are approximately 15,000,000 deaf persons in the United States, according to estimates.

Just sharpen your pencil—and there you are!

ACROSS this broad land there are thousands of people who have been doing themselves a disfavor.

Seems their "just naturally assume" a Buick is beyond their reach—and so pass up the car they're really itching to own.

Now why "assume" anything as important to your happiness as a new car?

Why not see for yourself how delivered prices run—how close Buick matches your own budget—how frequently it is priced under some cars you may be considering?

Then—if there is a particular car in mind—sharpen up your pencil a little.

Is it a six—or an eight, like Buick? If an eight, is it a valve-in-head eight? That adds a plus in efficiency, you know, even without the extra edge of Buick's Fireball power.

Will you ride on four soft coil springs, as in Buick—or on only two? Will the drive be through a sealed torque-tube that keeps the rear wheel assembly firmly aligned? It is in a Buick.

Do you get soft, low-pressure tires as part of the price—or as extras? Will you have bumper guards built as part of the bumper, or a one-piece cast-metal grille that can be costly to repair or replace?

Does the price include air cleaner; oil filter; dual horns, windshield wipers and sun visors; an automatic dome light; self-locking luggage lid; a single key for all locks?

And is there an automatic drive*, or one in which gears still shift in normal driving?

Yes, sharpen your pencil—and there you will be, in a Buick.

Whether it's a SPECIAL, a SUPER or a lordly ROADMASTER, you'll be driving the big buy of its price class, and getting a rich bonus of driving comfort, driving thrill and "fashion-first" styling.

But you have to make the first move. You are the one who has to find out. How about starting now—with a call on your Buick dealer?

*Dynamic Drive is standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.
